JODI CALLAHAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

This scholarship is in memory of Captain Jodi Callahan who was an AFA Under-Forty National Director and a Trustee of the former Aerospace Education Foundation. This scholarship is made possible through contributions to the Jodi Callahan Memorial Fund by her family and friends.

Objective

The Jodi Callahan Memorial Scholarship provides a $1,000 scholarship to an active duty Air Force, full time Guard or Reserve (officer or enlisted) person pursuing a Masters Degree in a non-technical field of study.

Requirements/Selection Criteria

- Completed application postmarked by June 30, 2008.
- A typed, two page double-spaced essay describing your academic goals and how you expect your degree to enhance your service to the Air Force.
- One letter of recommendation from your Air Force supervisor or commander.
- The letter should include a character reference, a description of your performance and an assessment of your potential as an Air Force leader and volunteer.
- Applicants must be enrolled in the current or upcoming semester with a minimum of 3 credit hours or the equivalent.
- Proof of acceptance into an accredited college/university. This may consist of a short letter on college/university stationery from either the admissions office or the registrar. A class registration payment/receipt stating that you are currently enrolled is also acceptable.
- Minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.0 is required. Submit an original or copy of your most recent college/university Masters program transcript with your GPA highlighted or circled. If just starting your Masters program, submit a copy of your undergraduate transcript with your GPA highlighted or circled.
